We affirm, from 1 Peter 2:9, that all are called to use their gifts and talents to actively participate in evangelism through sharing their faith and living their life as a testimony to the abundant life promised by Jesus Christ. John Wesley encouraged this "priesthood of all believers" concept by strongly advocating for the laity's role in sharing of the Good News as a standard of conduct for all Christ-followers.

Through The Foundation for Evangelism Laity Award, we seek to identify and celebrate exceptional lay people from each Wesleyan-tradition regional body (conference, district or other jurisdiction) who are:

- 1. radically and passionately driven to inviting all people to abundant life through a relationship with Jesus Christ and*
- 2. committed to helping disciples of Jesus be spiritually nourished and nurtured to live out their faith and witness, inviting still others to life-transforming relationship through Him.*

Those selected by their regional body for this award will be considered for a grant of up to $1,000 from The Foundation for Evangelism to support their evangelistic ministry.
